

OT - Soon come.

Once Time is Coming Back with More to Offer!

Dear Once Time Friends:

As some of you may already know, we have completed the survey and the response has been incredible –It is encouraging to know that the community is interested in seeing Once Time develop and provide more services.

I'd like to share with you some of the changes we'll be making to provide you with a better "social network" experience.

We are in the process of redesigning the entire site - You will be able to enjoy a brand new look, better functionality and navigation loaded with new features.

We are also working to develop partnerships with organizations that are like-minded, who will be of benefit to all of us. This means a wider variety of content.

Based on the results of the survey, we will be offering a paid and a free version of Once Time, which will be of tremendous value to subscribers. Very soon we will be rolling out some of the features for both versions

Until all these changes have been implemented, Once Time will be available in its usual appearance and functionality. We encourage you to continue to send your pictures to oncetime@rogers.com or photos@oncetime.com

We are very thankful for all your support in recent times and over the years. We will be updating you on the development on the site through our newsletter. We encourage you to email as at oncetime@rogers.com to be included in our email database.

Blessings,

PC....
